

Homecare Medical – CONSULTATION REPORT

Sample Patient
132 Sample Street
Gore

DOB 11/01/1972
Call-back No. 0900 99999

NHI MMM3333

CONSULTATION SUMMARY

Date/time: 30/03/2017 at 11:39hrs
Symptoms: Abdominal Pain, Pelvic Pain
Triage recommendation: face to face assessment within 2 hours
Advice given: Attend Emergency Department (own transport)

History taken

Abdominal Pain	When did the abdominal pain start?	<1 hour
	Description of behaviour now compared to normal?	Irritable
	Where is the pain most severe?	Lower abdomen
	How severe is the pain (0=none 10=worst possible)?	9-10: Worst ever
	What does the pain feel like?	Sharp/stabbing
	Does the pain go to another part of the body?	None
	What is the most effective way of easing pain?	Lying still
	Does anything make the pain worse?	Moving around
	What did the most recent bowel motion(s) look like	Normal/none recent
	Any genito-urinary symptom-pain/urgency/discharge?	None
	Any possibility of pregnancy?	No
	When did last period begin (is pregnancy possible)	1-7 days ago
	Is breathing loud/rapid/indrawing of chest/abdo?	No
	Are there any other symptoms?	None
	Any injury to abdomen (stomach) in past few days?	No
	Has anything been swallowed/inhaled/injected?	No
	Any significant past problem with bowel/gut?	Gallstones
	Pain related to known problem?	H/O Abdo surgery
	Taking any medications affecting bowels/stomach?	Acid suppressant

Notes

Severe abdo pain / pt distressed

Pt lives 5 mins down the road from Gore Hospital, wanting to go there. Referred the patient to Gore ED. Husband will drive her there now

User: GretchenL

End of document for: Sample Patient Age 45 years DOB 11/01/1972.
For further information please contact "ops@homecaremedical.co.nz"